Nancy's Note

"April showers bring May flowers" could be our motto. The luncheon committee has worked with Cindy Schneider (ΣΣΣ) of our W&M Committee to offer specialties from Bremec Gardens at the luncheon. We're convinced you'll want to go home with a centerpiece or one of the additional arrangements for sale. Bring cash or checks for them. Bremec's will also give CAPEF a percentage of the sales of gift cards purchased by phone April 15 thru the May 17th luncheon. They will also be at the luncheon with their credit card setup for your convenience.

Our scholarship winners will be announced at the meeting. Thanks to Gretchen Swasey (ΚΔ) and all the members of this most important committee!

We are now on Twitter! Our username is : CLEAlumPanhell. We're using #CLEpanhell to talk about the Centennial Luncheon.

I'll be happy to post any basket photo and description on our Facebook page, deadline is May 1st.

Everyone attending the luncheon will be automatically entered in a drawing for the $100 door prize!

You may request that your friends be seated at your table for 10. Just let Katie Keane (XO) know.

Reservations and table arrangements will be final as of May 7th, when we have to notify the Ritz.

Any photos to be included in the PowerPoint: "History of CAPA" should be sent to me by April 15th.

Baskets may be brought to the May 6th CAPA meeting or to The Silver Grille on Friday May 16th. Set up a drop off time for Friday afternoon. You will be able to hand it off to us at the service elevator next to the door at 200 Prospect St.

Enjoy every day,
Nancy
